Tenure Stream Position in Cognitive Neuroscience

The Department of Psychology at the University of Toronto Scarborough (UTSC) invites applications for a tenure-stream appointment in the field of Cognitive Neuroscience. The appointment will be at the rank of Assistant Professor and will begin on July 1, 2012.

We encourage applications from candidates with a strong research record in cognitive neuroscience, especially with a strong research record in neuroimaging broadly defined.

The University of Toronto has three campuses, Scarborough, Mississauga and St. George, each with its own Department of Psychology. Members of the three Psychology departments are also members of the tricampus graduate Department of Psychology.

The successful candidate will be expected to excel in teaching at the graduate and undergraduate levels, to develop courses that contribute to our proposed Masters Program in contemporary neuroimaging, to build an externally-funded vibrant research program and laboratory centered at UTSC, and to undertake undergraduate and graduate research supervision and teaching. The successful candidate also will be expected to perform standard professional and administrative activities typical of a department and/or university.

The successful candidate must have a PhD in cognitive neuroscience (or in Psychology with the required neuroimaging experience), an established record of excellent scholarly research and publications, and demonstrated commitment to and innovation in teaching. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

The University of Toronto Scarborough offers the opportunity to teach, conduct research and live in one of the most attractive and diverse cities in the world.

We encourage you to submit your application online by visiting the University of Toronto Faculty Careers Page at <http://www.jobs.utoronto.ca/faculty.htm>, and combine PDF or MS Word documents into one or two files. Applicants should submit a complete and current curriculum vitae, a statement outlining current and future research interests, three recent publications, and a teaching portfolio. Applicants should also arrange for three confidential letters of recommendation to be sent directly to: Professor John Bassili, Chair; Department of Psychology, University of Toronto Scarborough; 1265 Military Trail, Toronto; Ontario, Canada, M1C 1A4.

Reference letters and large documents may also be submitted electronically to: psychology-applications@utsc.utoronto.ca

The closing date for applications is November 30, 2011.
